Weekly Inspirational Corner

(Sponsored by an Irma Times reader)

The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

And He said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when He shall come in His glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels.

— Luke 9:22-26.

Mrs. L. H. Barss Passed Away

Another pioneer of this district, Mrs. L. H. Barss, passed away at 7 a.m. Friday, May 29th, in the Mannville Hospital. Sympathy is extended to her family.

NORTH EAST CORNER

Helen Nemyo had the misfortune last week to injure her back while playing at school. With medical attention and a few days at home, we hope she will soon be fine again.

A Miscellaneous Shower was held at A. Golding home for Sharon Casper whose marriage to Ken White took place recently.

Mrs. J. Laycock and girls visited in Edmonton over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Oldham and girls were Edmonton visitors on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Newton and son were Sunday visitors with the Bill Walkers.

Edith, Stanley and Chester Ford are staying with their Aunt Doris while their mother is hospitalized.

Jackson Journeys

We left Portland on Saturday morning and proceeded along the bank of the Columbia River where the scenery was most interesting. We had a good view of Mount Hood, which is over 11,000 feet high and covered with scrub spruce to the timber line and covered with snow to the top. In many places along the Columbia gorge, we saw water cascading down the mountain sides into the river. There are many lumber mills along this route.

We had lunch at Yakima where the wind was quite chilly. Here we began to notice the big displays of farm machinery—mostly John Deere, Caterpillar and J. I. Case. Shortly afterwards we noticed the old grain elevator in the towns through which we passed. These were mostly of concrete construction and quite large.

At Spokane we stayed overnight and had a good sleep. We arrived at Kingsgate the next morning and quickly passed through Canadian customs. Here we put our watches one hour ahead of time from Pacific to Mountain Standard Time. We finally reached Calgary at 9:30 p.m. We spent a few days visiting around amongst our many friends in the foothill city and the Wheat Pool office, we met many of the staff. We spent one evening with Bill and Mrs. Enger and another with Otto and Margaret Setter and girls. We found them all feeling and looking fine and we promised to remember them to all their friends around Irma.

Minnie stayed on in Calgary to attend the Provincial Grand Orange Lodge sessions which were held that same week. After spending one night and one day in Edmonton, I arrived home in Irma on Thursday evening, March 19 after being away from home exactly two months. Minnie got home a week later.

The American people we met were, without exception, just what we needed. The drivers were friendly, people, hospitable and easy to get along with. However, we soon found that the average American is tragically ignorant of Canada. Their grasp of world affairs is, to say the least, very elementary. The drivers and other employees of the Greyhound Co. with whom we came in contact were all that the company claims they are—courteous, reliable, trustworthy, and then some.

We enjoyed every moment of our trip and hope to go again in the not too distant future.

Very sincerely,
Jim Jackson.

Sharon some time ago but was unable to keep her appointment due to illness, will be at Sharon on Thursday evening, June 4th. He is showing a film of interest to everyone. We trust many will keep this date in mind and be at Sharon that particular evening.

CGIT Activities End For Summer Months

A good year's work for the CGIT in Irma was terminated on Wednesday, May 20th when a Mother and Daughter Banquet followed by a Graduation Ceremony was held in the basement of the United Church.

This was a most happy occasion for the girls, their mothers, the leaders and invited guests. Receiving were Linda, Margaret, Virley, Jean, Arlene, Donna and Shirley.

Lovely dinner was served by members of the W.A.

Carol Fischer was Chairman and in her opening remarks, welcomed those present and expressed her appreciation of all CGIT means.

Sheila Ballentine proposed the toast to The Queen. Arlene Clumstad, the tribute to the Church. Mrs. Riley made the reply. "Lord, I want to be a Christian" was then sung.

Elaine MacMillan proposed the toast to "Our Mothers." Mrs. Darling replied.

"Wonderful Mother of Mine" was sung by Isabel Inglis, Joyce Lovig, Elaine Jack and Elaine MacMillan accompanied by Virley Sampson.

Mrs. Fischer proposed the toast to CGIT. Reply by Elaine Jack. Toast to the Graduates was made by Laraine Pond.

Leslie Seaton, on behalf of the WMS, presented the three graduates, Linda Daniels, Jean Darling and Carol Fischer with American Beauty Rose corsages.

Linda Daniels then spoke and expressed sincere thanks to the Leaders, the W.A. the WMS and all who had helped to make CGIT so rich and meaningful.

Members of the Sunshiners Group presented Carol, Linda and Jean with CGIT pins. The graduates made a presentation to the leaders.

A sing-song was enjoyed and then the girls and their guests were taken up to the body of the church for the graduating ceremonies which were open to the public.

Carol Fischer was again Chairman. Hymns were sung and Scripture read.

The Valedictory address was ably given by Jean Darling who told of how a girl may join CGIT, thinking of it first as just a girls' club but if she seriously applies herself to its precepts she finds it a most rewarding experience which brings her to Christ and Christian service. Mr. Erling Nilson then sang, "I'll Walk With God."

Mr. Inglis gave a fine address pointing out the cultural and spiritual benefits of CGIT and of the credit due those who attain the high standards necessary for graduation.

Mrs. Inglis presided over the actual graduation service and presented the diplomas.

Following this, the girls were presented to Rev. H. W. Inglis, S. S. Sup't. S. M. Brown, W.A. President Mrs. R. Dempsey and WMS President Mrs. H. Riley and later to the mothers and other guests.

All who attended felt this was a very special occasion in our church life and are thankful, indeed, for Mrs. Inglis, Mrs. Ronsman and also for the help of Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Clifton Holt who assisted them part-time in this so-worth-while work.

SYDNEY, Australia—Evangelist Billy Graham addressed 33,000 people in one night, a record for a week night.

Graham said women should make themselves as attractive as possible to their husbands. He said wives should run out and greet their husbands with a kiss when they come home from work.

ALBERT HOME & SCHOOL ASS'N

Albert Home and School held their last meeting for this term on May 25th.

The business part of the meeting mostly concerned how we would raise funds to operate. It was decided to have hobo tea. If you see a carload of hobos coming, better put on the kettle. If the car isn't loaded, you're going for a ride (in the dress you have on). Each hobo will be prepared to pay 25c for his or her tea. Be seeing you.

The program part of the meeting followed and we were very honored in having Mrs. Lillian Pheasay of Buffalo Coulee Home and School, oblige us by giving her report from the Home and School Convention held recently in Edmonton.

Many views were brought to light and she gave us much food for thought.

She brought greeting from Mr. Bruce, a former teacher at Orbindale school who is an official of the Alberta Home and School. Best wishes from the Buffalo Coulee Home and School were also extended for our success.

The next meeting for the Albert Home and School will be held on September the 28th, the fourth Monday. Hobo tea money to be handed in at this meeting. Any interested persons are encouraged to join.

News Report From Edmonton

EDMONTON — Progress since Conservative Leader W. J. C. (Cam) Kirby last week took the wraps off the long-awaited Tory platform for the forthcoming provincial election.

Aimed mostly at the farm vote, it contained few surprises. The platform is made up mostly of measures advocated by the Conservatives and other Opposition groups during this year's session of the Legislature.

Mr. Kirby unveiled his program at a nominating convention in Claresholm. Part of his talk also was carried over a province-wide radio network. Specifically, here's what he promises to do if his party comes to power:

1. Bring in a new farm credit act to provide loans up to $25,000 for all agricultural purposes. Young farmers would be charged a flat four per cent interest; others would pay not more than one per cent more than the province's own borrowing rate.

2. Introduce a "long overdue" policy on rural electrification, particularly for farmers in northern regions, and give "leadership and assistance" to rural mutual telephone companies.

3. Implement the recommendations of the government committee which last year made an extensive study of irrigation and turned in a report critical of some government projects.

4. Encourage the decentralization of industry to assist the economies of rural areas.

5. Re-open the Fairview School of Agriculture; consider establishment of another agricultural school in the south, along with bursaries for students, modernization of the curriculum, vocational schools for adults and organization of farm cost accounting and management clubs.

6. Carry out research in marketing, a search for new uses for special crops and for new cash crops, and research into new livestock breeding and feeding techniques.

7. Bring about compulsory testing for tuberculosis and Bang's disease in cattle, and introduce legislation enabling municipalities to make spraying for warble flies compulsory.

8. Take action a crop insurance program that will "wipe out the most glaring inequities that exist in the Prairie Farm Assistance Act."

9. Make farm workers eligible for workmen's compensation and seek their inclusion in unemployment insurance, along with a government agency to help farmers find workers when they need them.

Obviously, the Tories are aiming at capturing a sizeable chunk of the farm vote in their first serious bid to seize power in Alberta. Presumably, they feel they won't do too badly in the cities, especially in Calgary, which has always been a Conservative stronghold.

If you want to criticize the Tory platform, you can find in it the faults of most political programs. It doesn't say how it is going to accomplish all the things it promises, and some of the promises themselves are vague.

But it should be remembered that an Opposition party is at a distinct disadvantage in hammering together a platform. A government in office, with its army of civil service experts in various fields, is in a better position to map out a definite program it knows it can afford to finance.

A good example is the government's five-year plan, announced last August. At a press conference last week Premier Manning noted he hadn't yet seen a Conservative platform. He said Social Credit's "wait until an election is called and then secretly prepare a program for release at the most advantageous moment. His party, he said, has a continuing program with which the public is always acquainted.

Incidentally, we've yet to hear an Opposition party candidate promise that if his group is elected it will carry through the government's five-year plan.

IT LOOKS AS THOUGH municipalities will be paying 5% per cent interest on capital loans this year from the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation. The MFC last week completed negotiations for a $50,000,000 loan on the New York market. The MFC will be paying Garnishes serve two purposes. First, they make food more attractive to the eye, thus stimulating the flow of digestive juices and aiding digestion; second, they add bulk or "roughage" to the diet or increase the nutritive value of the dish.

GARNISHES

ASIDE from using radish roses, carrot curls, which we are familiar with, the following are additional ideas one may use:

Garnishes for Soups:

One of the simplest garnishes for soups is a tablespoon of salted whipped cream sprinkled with a dash of paprika or a little parsley chopped very fine. Cubes of bread browned in the oven can also be used.

Garnishes for Aspics and Salads: These are used to add color, stimulate the appetite and to make the meal more attractive in appearance.

a. Stuffed tomato with cottage cheese or mayonnaise (centres are hollowed out) and sprinkled with paprika or parsley.

b. Hollow out centres of dill pickles or sweet pickles with an apple corer and stuff with cream cheese. Chill and cut into slices.

c. Orange, lemon or grapefruit shells can be used to hold servings of jello, cranberry sauce or fruit salads.

d. The orange alone provides a variety of ways by which it can be served as a garnish or for fruit salads. Segments are made from a peeled orange by gently separating into natural divisions. Sections are made from a peeled orange. Cut the section halfway bake the segment walls so that the membrane is in the centre of the "meat." Shells are made by scoring around the middle with a knife point. Then insert spoon handle and peel a layer from the fruit. The edges may be notched with scissors if desired. Cartwheels may be made from peeled or unpeeled oranges. Slice the orange crosswise in any thickness. For halfwheels, cut the cartwheels in half.

Garnishes for Meat:

a. Garnish turkey with frosted grapes. Beat an egg white until frothy but not stiff. Dip washed egg drapes into egg whites then dust with fine granulated sugar.

b. Creamed meat dishes may be served with triangles or rounds of toast, in borders of rice or mashed potato in croutards of bread, in timbale cases or pastry shells or in cups of rice or mashed potato.

c. Roast pork may be garnished with baked apple or sautéed apple rings filled with jelly. Cinnamon apples can be made by coring and peeling whole small apples into quarters, halves or rings and cooking them until just tender in a sugar syrup seasoned with cinnamon and cloves and tinted with red or green food coloring and used as a garnish.

d. Individual fruit Kababs are pretty and a good meat garnish. Arrange pineapple chunks, marionberry cherries or other bits of fruit on a toothpick.

e. For turkey or chicken, bake extra dressing in greased muffin tins. Unmold and arrange around platter.

Canadian National Railways has announced an extension to its Railline services in the Prairie Provinces. In June, this fast, convenient service will be introduced between The Pas and Brandon, cutting travelling time between these two Northern Manitoba centres.

The teacher had just finished telling the story of the Pilgrims to a group of small children.

"Now, Gertrude," began the teacher, "When the Pilgrims had been here a year and had gathered in their good crops, what did they do?"

"Bought a car," replied Gertrude promptly.

something around 5.4 per cent, depending on exchange rates. Provincial Treasurer E. W. Hinman says the rate to the municipalities will be at least 3% of one per cent better than they could do acting on their own.

WITH THE District Agriculturist

By J. S. Duncan

Plant Forage Crops Now

If you haven't already done so you should seed your grass and legumes now. Be careful to have the seed bed as firm as possible and keep the seed close to the surface as possible, about one half inch deep is ideal. Don't forget to inoculate all Alfalfa and clover seed so that your legumes will be able to take nitrogen from the air. If stinkweed and pigweed should be a problem in the new seeding they can be controlled with 2,4-D-B, a new type of weed control chemical which legumes are more tolerant of. If wild oats or other weeds are a problem, moving is probably the best way to prevent seed production.

Control of Grass in Shelterbelts: Some help is available in the form of a chemical to control grass in trees. The chemical is Dalapon and directions should be followed very closely. A word of caution is also in order regarding the use of this chemical. Some trees, among them Caragana and Bird Cherry are also killed by this chemical. It is suggested that before you treat all your trees that you try a small area at one end of the shelter belt or around one or two trees of each species and find out if they will tolerate Dalapon.

Chemical Weed Control in Crops:

The drier the year the more important it is to control weeds in crops so as to prevent reduction in yield of the crop. Chemicals are more effective and weeds are easier to kill when the weeds are small. At this stage they have also damaged the crop less. Keep an eye on your fields and if they require spraying do it just as soon as the crop is in a safe stage. In the case of wheat and barley this is when they reach the four leaf stage. For wheat and barley, 2,4-D is safe. In the case of oats the first safe stage is when they are in the three to four leaf stage. With oats the use of M.C.P. is recommended. This chemical is more expensive but 2,4-D is likely to cause damage to the oat crop.

Farmers Support Safety Program

Farmers in the Echo Hill community gave a terrific response to a safety program designed to make their farm machinery safer to move on the highways. W. J. Perkins, Farm Safety Director for the Alberta Safety Council reports.

Three hundred farm machines operated on seventy farms had reflective tape 3" wide put on them for safer movement at night both for the farm operator and the motorists travelling the roads and highways. The tape, when properly installed is visible to oncoming traffic from distances up to 1500 feet.

The reflective tape was donated by members of the Echo Hill Women's Institute, who, with the help of 4H Club members of the Echo Hill Beef Club personally visited the farms and applied the reflective tape to the machinery. Cost of the project, believed the first of its type in the west, was approximately $180.00.

Many of the farmers taking part in the program were from FUA locals of Vimy, Legal, Busby and Picardville.

All members spoke of the good response by farm operators co-operating in the program and because of the enthusiastic reception of the Safety Committee, Mrs. Lloyd McMillan, Mrs. Sam Yeomans and Mrs. William Price hope that further safety programs can be carried out in the future.

Atlantic Congress Meet at London

EDMONTON, May 25, 1959—The Atlantic Congress, to be held in London from June 5th to 9th, will bring together 650 delegates from all 15 nations of the NATO Alliance.

Canada's delegation will consist of 15 members of the Senate and the House of Commons and 30 non-parliamentarians who have distinguished themselves in industry, commerce, banking, labour unions, mass media, universities, the professions, agriculture and other major aspects of Canadian life.

The purpose of the Congress is to consider ways and means of developing closer and more effective co-operation between North American and European members of NATO. The Congress will consider problems in the fields of political, economic and cultural, as well as military affairs.

Mr. Ed Nelson, President of the Farmers Union of Alberta will be one of the three delegates from Alberta. Mr. Nelson, in his capacity as vice-chairman of the Interprovincial Farm Union Council, is representing the direct farm union members of Western Canada and Ontario.

Caravan to F.U.A. Camp Planned

The FUA Camp Committee announced recently that a caravan to the FUA campsite at Gold Eye Lake is planned for Farmers' Day June 12th.

All FUA Union people, old and young, are welcome to join the party. The purpose of the caravan is two fold, first to acquaint FUA members with the camp area and secondly to promote interest in this leadership training project. The caravan is an additional Farmers' Day celebration but is not intended to distract from already planned Farmers' Day celebrations. To any locals who do not have anything planned the caravan will offer an enjoyable day. The cars will meet at the Junction of highways two and eleven three miles north of Red Deer and will leave for Gold Eye Lake at 10 a.m. The caravanners will bring box lunches for dinner and supper and the camp committee will supply coffee. There also is planned a short program with speakers from within the FUA and outside slated to speak.

It is hoped that a large group of FUA people will join this caravan and visit the Camp site at Gold Eye Lake—100 miles west of Red Deer in the Rocky Mountains.

Survey on Farm Safety Starts

Canada's first national survey on farm safety will be conducted in May and June of 1959.

Playing a key role will be 73-1 enrolled members of 4-H Clubs across the country, who will report accidents on their home farms.

The survey is being carried out by the Canadian Council of 4-H Clubs, the provincial departments of agriculture, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, the Canada Department of Agriculture, and the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.

There are no adequate national statistics on farm accidents and it is felt that up-to-date information on the kind, cause and incidence of accidents will facilitate development of better farm safety programs.

Farm parents and local 4-H Clubs are being urged to get behind the survey. Questionnaires, to be filled out, cover the period January 1 to December 31 last year. It is hoped to have results tabulated by mid-summer.

Procktor - Eastly Vows Pledged at Sedgewick

Lighted tapers and vases of pink and white carnations and chrysanthemums formed the setting for the double-ring ceremony Saturday afternoon, May 16th, in the Sedgewick United Church when Miss Beverly Dawn Eastly became the bride of Mr. Larry Walter Procktor of Viking, Alberta.

Jackson Strapp performed the ceremony which united the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Eastly of Sedgewick, and the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Procktor of Young, Saskatchewan. Organist was Mrs. Marion Strapp.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of silk Bombazine. The bodice featured an oval neckline and lily-point sleeves applied in rose medallions—dew-dropped with pearls, and was accented by an Empire waistline. The princess-style skirt with redingote extended to a slight train at the back. A pearl crown held in place her fingertip veil and she carried white gardenias with stephanotis and ivy. She also wore as her only jewellery the groom's gift, a cultured pearl and diamond pendant.

Three attendants preceded the bride up the church aisle—Miss Patricia Milne, maid of honor, Miss Rena Skori and Miss Gene Daly as bridesmaids. They were dressed similarly in pink and white flowered sheath gowns with matching turquoise blue picture hats, cummerbunds and satin slippers, and carried white carnations sprayed with turquoise blue.

The groom's attendants were Mr. Kevin Gleeson, Mr. Ronnie Benson, both of Viking, and Mr. Robert Dunbar of Irma.

The ushers were Mr. Michael

Smith of Sedgewick (cousin of the bride), and Mr. Johnny Akers of Viking.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Marion Strapp, organist, rendered beautiful organ music.

Following the ceremony the bride of Mr. Larry Procktor and the bride of Mr. Kevin Gleeson, both of Viking, and the bride of Mr. Arthur C. "Ace" Eastly from Big Spring, Texas, extending his congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Procktor left later in the evening for a short honeymoon trip. For travelling the bride chose the beige and brown flowered dress with matching coat, lime green hat and gloves, brown bag and shoes. She wore a gardenia from her bridal bouquet on corsage.

On their return they will make their home in Viking where the groom is employed with Northwestern Utilities Ltd.
